- 27.4. In respect of any extension to a Rental, the Rate shall only be changed during the Rental Period where (i) the extension is requested by Company and granted formally by ERAC; and (ii) with prospective effect (i.e. no Rate reduction shall apply to the period prior to the formal agreement of an extension, the Rates due for such period prior to the extension shall remain to be paid at the original agreed Rate).
- 27.5. Where it is necessary to cancel a Reservation, Company shall provide a minimum notice to ERAC before the Rental Period is scheduled to commence. Where less than the minimum notice is provided to ERAC before the Rental Period is scheduled to commence, ERAC shall have the right to: (a) enforce the original delivery/collection charge; and (b) apply an abortive charge(s) at ERAC's standard rate or as otherwise set out in the Rates. Where upfitting, livery or ancillary equipment is ordered or fitted by ERAC and notwithstanding such minimum notice being provided, Company may still be required to pay the reasonable costs incurred for any such upfitting, livery or ancillary equipment ordered and/or fitted. The minimum notice is: (i) 3 Working Hours for car and light commercial vehicles; and (ii) 1 Working Day for specialist, accessible, refrigerated and heavy goods vehicles.

- 27.8. Company agrees reasonable cleaning where it fails to return the Vehicle in a good condition and such charge shall be the additional cost to ERAC reasonably incurred and based on time spent as a result of such failure in addition to an administrative charge at ERAC's standard rate or as otherwise set out in the Rates.
- 27.9. If any Vehicle is not made available to ERAC for collection or otherwise returned to ERAC within 14 days of the end of the Rental Period or otherwise following termination of the Order or Rental Agreement or the Company's Account Agreement, then ERAC shall be entitled to levy a charge to Company for an amount equal to the market value of the Vehicle in addition to an administrative charge at ERAC's standard rate or as otherwise set out in the Rates. This shall not preclude ERAC from continuing to seek to recover the Vehicle and from recovering the ongoing rental (and other) costs and charges at ERAC's standard rates or as otherwise set out in the Rates.
- 27.10. During a period of low supply or high demand, ERAC may limit the availability of certain Vehicles within its fleet and/or adjust the rental Rates of certain impacted Vehicles.
